VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1921

GIVES M. BRIAND VIRTUAL PLEDGE OF NEEDED HELP

Mr. Balfour, in Responding to French Premier's Address to Conference, Speaks Confidently of What Britain Would Do in Case France Should Be Again Attacked

OTHER COUNTRIES' DELEGATES SPEAK IN SIMILAR STRAIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—When the French Premier had concluded his address today, Mr. A. J. Balfour responded for Great Britain with a virtual pledge of British support should the civilization of Europe be again threatened as it was in 1914. For the United States, Secretary Hughes declared the plea of France never fell on deaf ears in America, and Italy and Belgium added their word of appreciation for the peculiar situation of the French.

Admiral Baron Kato expressed the profound sympathy of Japan for the declaration of Premier Briand, and asserted that for themselves the Japanese desired to maintain on land only such military forces as seemed "necessary for national security and the maintenance of order within."

Both Mr. Balfour and Baron Kato suggested that the day's developments seemed to indicate that any limitation of land armament would be difficult to establish, and although the subject was referred to a committee of the whole for future consideration, there was apparent no inclination to hasten the discussion of details.

It would not surprise some delegates if the armament conference simmered down to an effort merely to agree on a general statement of policy.

OLIVER FORCES ARE WEAKENING

Mr. David Whiteside, Former Supporter, Says Government Has Abandoned Principles—Premier Is Defiant

"The situation has moved in on this Government. It is time for an accounting, and it won't be long in coming," declared Mr. David Whiteside, member for New Westminster, speaking in the budget debate last night.

Mr. Whiteside, once regarded as one of the strongest supporters of the Oliver Administration, declared that he had broken away from the Government side.

"If the Government itself, after having expounded its policy, has abandoned its principles," he asserted, "I have no use for this hole-in-the-corner caucus Government."

Mr. Whiteside's speech was regarded as another sign of the rapid weakening of the Government. It came as a stiff blow to Premier Oliver, after he and his supporters had listened during the afternoon to two hours of burning criticism from the leader of the Opposition.

Major R. J. Burde, M.P.P. for Alberni, was scheduled to speak after Mr. Whiteside, but the Premier, upsetting this arrangement, sprang to his feet as soon as Mr. Whiteside had finished.

Defiantly, the Premier defended his administration, and answered some of the charges made by other speakers during the day. He argued that if the business men didn't like the personal property tax, they could elect a council that would not levy it.

He again accused the municipalities of contributing to their own misfortune, but he added this:

"It is of their own creation, just as the Province's condition is of the creating of this Government. We have spent more than our resources justify. We have spent more than the conditions of the country warrant. I have great sympathy with the demand for retrenchment."

SIXTY-FOUR MOPLAHS SMOTHERED ON TRAIN

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Sixty-four of 100 Mohlah prisoners died of suffocation while being transferred in a closed railroad wagon from Teurur to Telavi, in the Madras Presidency of India, according to a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Madras.

The government has ordered an investigation, and Mohammedans have telegraphed representations to the government and to Earl Cromer, who is head of the personal staff of the Prince of Wales, now in India.

Robbery at Spangile, Wash.
SPOKANE, Nov. 21.—Three thousand dollars worth of unregistered Liberty bonds and $1,000 worth of war savings stamps were stolen from the State bank of Spangile, at Spangile, twenty miles south of here, at an early hour this morning. About 300 safe deposit boxes were rifled. Registered bonds worth about $1,000 were thrown on the floor, together with an envelope containing a $1,000 bond.

Conflict in Argentina
BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 21.—Five persons were killed and 17 wounded in a battle between cavalrymen and a force of bandits and strikers in the territory of Santa Cruz. The troops took 170 prisoners.

TWO DISASTERS OCCUR IN EUROPE

HAMBURG, Nov. 21.—Twelve children lost their lives today in a fire which swept through a playhouse. Thirty others were injured.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—A landslide caused by heavy rains has overwhelmed the Sicilian town of Falion. Sixty persons are reported dead.

MANITOBA FARMERS NEED ASSISTANCE

WINNIPEG, Nov. 21.—Definite plans to relieve unemployment in cities and to cope with the serious conditions for farmers throughout the Province, will, it is expected, be laid before the Legislature here Thursday by a delegation of Labor members, headed by F. J. Dixon, leader of the Labor group. Several of the Labor members are in rural constituencies which will deal with the problems facing the farmers and the need for financial assistance in order to permit them to carry on agricultural development next year.

OPPOSITION HAS MANY POLICIES

Premier Again Points to Fact That Liberals and Progressives Vary Utterances to Suit Sections

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., Nov. 21.—The opening of what probably will be the most strenuous period of Premier Meighen's election campaign was featured by two large meetings in the twin cities of Fort William and Port Arthur tonight. The Premier spoke first in the city hall at Fort William, going from there to the Armories at Port Arthur, where several thousand persons were waiting to hear him.

Premier Meighen said that parties must have a policy and that policy in every section of the country, or responsible government was gone. In the opposition camps men were running on widely varying programmes to suit the section of the community in which they happened to be located.

He said the opposition leaders had a speech, most of which, the Premier said, meant nothing, but part of which consisted of the most powerful of American orators. This charge was all humbug, said the Premier. He had attained his present office in just the same manner as the other Prime Ministers had in Canada and the British Empire.

Reviewing his tariff policy and his attitude to the question of grain marketing, the Premier closed with an exhortation to all Canadians to work for a united and self-supporting Canada.

PROGRESSIVES HAVE TROUBLES

Former Members of Parliament From Saskatchewan, Refused Renomination, Appear as Independents

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—An interesting development in the Progressive fight in Saskatchewan is to be expected during the next two weeks, according to a former Western member of parliament who reached Ottawa today. This is arising, he stated, from the fact that the Progressive vote is likely to be split in one or two constituencies where the former sitting members have been "turned down" by nominating conventions, and are likely to run on their tickets.

Of the Progressive and independent members who sat in the last parliament, Thomas McNitt, Saltcoats, Levi Thompson, Qu'Appelle, H. O. Wright, Battleford, Dr. Michael Clark, Red Deer, J. A. Campbell, Nelson, F. Davis, Neepawa, and J. A. Maharg, Marj Creek, are without Progressive nominations in the present fight. Hon. J. A. Maharg, as minister in the Saskatchewan Government, is, of course, out of the Federal arena. Dr. Michael Clark has been given the Liberal nomination in Mackenzie, which seat was formerly represented by J. F. Reid, who is superseded by M. N. Campbell as Progressive.

In Saltcoats, Thomas McNitt was superseded as Progressive candidate by Thomas Sales, but Mr. McNitt has announced himself as an Independent Farmer candidate, and, according to reports in the West, it was stated, would be likely to split the Progressive vote badly. In Battleford, H. O. Wright, the last sitting member, was not nominated, but has announced that he would oppose T. H. McConkey. Levi Thompson, former Progressive, did not receive the nomination this year in Qu'Appelle, while the Progressive nomination was J. D. Miller.

Hon. T. A. Cressat, Marquette, O. R. Gould, Ashcroft, and Andrew Knox, Prince Albert, are the only Progressive members who sat in the last House and who are again nominated by Mr. Cressat's followers.

SOME PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE

Indication That Conference Will Succeed in Measure for Reduction of Armaments Appears at Washington

"BIG THREE" MEET IN CONSULTATION

Hear Opinions of Experts on Tonnage and Other Details—British Position Regarding Japanese Alliance

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—There was strong indication today that definite progress toward an agreement on the American proposals for naval reduction and limitation was being made, although no definite action was taken.

The "Big Three" of the arms limitation conference, Secretary Hughes, A. J. Balfour and Admiral Baron Kato, met in Mr. Hughes' office. Each was aided by the chief naval experts of each power, but as far as could be learned, the discussion did not get beyond further talk over figures as to tonnage and other matters in the American plan.

The fact that the experts had made such progress as to award the formal meeting to the heads of the three delegations chiefly concerned in the naval programme, was regarded as significant, however, and foreshadowing some early conclusion. The meeting probably will be resumed Tuesday.

The present British attitude on the question of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, British spokesmen declared today, is not different from that recently expressed by Mr. Lloyd George, who said it would not be proper to say to Japan:

"You stood by us during the war, but we don't need you now, so goodbye."

The British emphasized in this connection that the British Prime Minister also declared that this did not mean Great Britain would condone any treaty which might be signed of any nation, and certainly not against the United States, as there was no other country with which Great Britain strongly desired to act.

SNOW AFFLICTS MAINLAND AREAS

Wintry Weather Ties Up Much Traffic and Works Other Damage—Destructive Floods at Some Points

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—Vancouver got its first real taste of winter this morning, when snow started falling about 10 o'clock. It is a heavy snow, and in some places it has reached nearly an inch in depth.

Wintry weather is sweeping the Pacific Mainland, resulting in delayed trains and mild frosts in widely separated districts. In this Province, snowing worse than delayed street car service has resulted so far, however. From Spokane, Bellingham, Walla Walla, Tacoma, Yakima, Wenatchee, and other Washington, Salem, Portland, and Molalla, Oregon, came reports of crippled train service and flooded streets.

At Walla Walla nineteen inches, and at Tacoma twenty inches of snow over the week-end constitutes a record. At Salem the Willamette River is in flood and a number of railroad bridges have been washed out and low lying settlements flooded. At Molalla a dam at the source of the town water supply has been washed away, and the streets are flooded. The damage there has reached $40,000. There is a heavy rainfall in the Willamette valley, following the brief cold spell, and the flood may become serious. In the cities of Seattle and Portland no damage is reported except to wires broken under the weight of snow and sleet. Trains are delayed. At Seattle the Pacific Northwest Fruit Exposition opened today in spite of wintry weather, of course behind closed doors.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21.—Portland was swept by a severe snow, sleet and rain storm Sunday. Greatest damage was done by the sleet, which fell throughout the early hours in Portland and the surrounding country. It turned to rain last night. Five thousand telephones were put out of commission by fallen poles and wires. Street car traffic was badly impeded because of ice-cemented trolley wires. Electric light service was interrupted in many sections. Greatest damage was to fruit and shade trees and shrubbery broken down under the weight of raining ice. No accurate estimate of the monetary loss from this cause has been made. Railroad traffic east and north was hampered.

SHERIDAN, Ore., Nov. 21.—Fifteen stores in the business part here were washed out by the rain. The main street between here and Williams, Ore., was washed out, and the railroad bridge was so badly damaged that traffic was suspended. A large part of the town of Williams was flooded.

Former Member Dies
PETERBORO, Nov. 21.—After a short illness, John Lane, ex-member of Parliament for East Peterboro, died at his residence in the village of Keneo, today, aged 81.

RIOTING IN BELFAST GETS MORE VICTIMS IN PAST TWO DAYS

FALSE CHARGE MADE BY DAVID LOUGHNAN

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—"Absolutely untrue," was the comment of R. V. Breen, commissioner of taxation, this morning, in reply to statements respecting arrears of business taxes alleged to have been made by David Loughnan, Progressive candidate in Ottawa, on Saturday night.

The statement to which Mr. Breen had reference is that the Cock-shutt Plow Company had given promissory notes for $750,000, and the Canada Steel Corporation, promissory notes for nearly a million dollars, in payment of taxes.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 21.—The Cock-shutt Plow Company had paid its tax in cash and on time, was the reply of Vice-President and General Manager George Wedlake today, when asked as to the story from Ottawa that the company gave a note for $750,000 for taxes.

CITY ASKS PROBE TO DISPEL DOUBT

Council Will Request Chamber of Commerce to Inquire Into Municipal Expenditures—Reveal Letters to Premier

Responding to the challenge thrown down by Premier John Oliver, the City Council last night decided to ask the Chamber of Commerce to conduct an inquiry into "the economy or otherwise of the expenditures of this city from the beginning of 1914 to the present date."

The result of the inquiry, in the belief of the plan's sponsors, will put at rest all charges that the city's finances have been recklessly handled.

Correspondence that has passed between Mayor Porter and the Premier during the last few days, as a result of adoption by the Council last week of resolutions condemning the Government's attitude towards the municipalities, was revealed last night.

The first letter by Premier Oliver, suggesting that the city was on delicate ground when it criticized the Government's financial policy, was published in Sunday's Colonist. The Mayor's reply was, in part, as follows:

"It is obvious that on questions of taxation and comparative economy as between the Provincial and City Governments we are in entire agreement, and this City Council, together with other municipal councils of the Province, have on so many occasions demonstrated the object with yourself and members of your Cabinet that it would undoubtedly be fruitless for me to attempt to do so now."

In regard to your letter, however, I note you lay considerable stress upon certain local improvement sinking fund shortages. My understanding of the situation is considerably different. It has been a recognized fact for some time past that the sinking fund was not being paid.

Approves Resolution On China's Position

Conference Committee Dealing With Question Adopts Declarations Drafted by Mr. Root—Calls for Respect for Territorial Integrity and Sovereignty of Republic

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—A resolution declaring for the territorial and administrative integrity of China was adopted unanimously today by the conference committee on Pacific and Far Eastern questions. The resolution, the first concrete action of the armament limitation conference, was drafted and presented by Hon. Elihu Root, one of the United States delegates.

Adoption of the resolution followed two hours' discussion of Chinese problems at today's meeting of the delegates of the nine powers in committee of the whole on Pacific and Far Eastern questions. The discussion was said to have been general and participated in by spokesmen for all the principal nations represented.

The Root resolution, it was learned, was one of the principal subjects of discussion at yesterday's meeting of the four delegates. The declaration in the Root resolution for administrative integrity of China was declared by the delegates to be very significant and important. While there have been declarations in the past for territorial integrity of China, such declarations, it was said, never before have gone to the extent of declaring for administrative integrity.

The Root resolution was said to have been the principal topic at the committee meetings today. Other Chinese questions are to be taken up at another meeting of the committee at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

One of the delegates said, with reference to the agreement that "a long step already has been taken toward formulation of the Far Eastern questions."

"The firm intention" of the eight signatory powers was asserted "to respect the sovereignty, independence and territorial and administrative integrity of China."

Two Men Are Killed and Another Fatally Wounded, While Many People Suffer Minor Injuries—Volley Fired Along Street by Thugs Under Cover of Darkness

KEEPER OF BAR COOLLY MURDERED

Prisoners in Waterford Jail Go on Hunger Strike—Cork Corporation on Internment Question—Supporters of Ulster Hold Meeting in London and Make Strong Speeches

BELFAST, Nov. 21.—A pedestrian was fatally injured tonight when the rioting, which broke out on Sunday, spread to the York Street district. Under cover of darkness, gunmen fired a volley along Earl Street, and the pedestrian was hit by a bullet.

Later, two men entered a public house and ordered the barkeeper to throw up his hands. When he refused to do so, he was shot and killed.

One man was killed and another was wounded in a renewal this morning of the rioting which broke out in the Scaford district of East Belfast Sunday, when rival factions clashed. Four persons were sent to hospitals and numerous others were slightly injured in yesterday's disturbance.

Today's recurrence of the trouble was met promptly by the authorities, and the situation was speedily brought under control.

CORK, Nov. 21.—Seventeen prisoners in the Waterford jail have begun a hunger strike owing to the refusal of the Government to grant them increased time for recreation.

The Cork Corporation, at a special meeting today, adopted a resolution asking the Dail Eireann cabinet to "suspend peace negotiations until the question of prisoners is satisfactorily adjusted." The resolution called on the Dail members in Southern Ireland to make similar representations. Three Dail members present supported the resolution.

Loyalist Meeting
LONDON, Nov. 21.—A Loyalist meeting held in London today, at a demonstration by supporters of Ulster, passed a resolution calling upon the Government to enter into no agreement on the Irish question until the Sinn Fein have accepted the terms of the Balfour Declaration, and the Government, who were also in attendance, had an easy task.

Brig-Gen. Davies, who commanded the Crown forces in Limerick before the truce, but who since then has resigned, said the Irish had learned during the war that the British Government had not the courage to deal with revolutionaries.

"The Indian revolution was worked from the same room in New York as the revolution in Ireland," he declared. "Thrice we had the Irish revolutionaries by the throat, and thrice we were pulled off by the moment when we were about to apply the screw tighter. The Government made a truce and called a conference with men, some of whom are actually guilty of the murder of my police. 'Ulster' came to fight sooner or later, and if I were there I would fight now."

MR. BENNETT PREDICTS
RESULT IN ONTARIO

WINNIPEG, Nov. 21.—Hon. R. B. Bennett, Minister of Justice, stopped off between trains last night on his way to Calgary from Ontario, where he has been on a speaking tour. The Minister forecast that Premier Meighen would win at least fifty seats in Ontario and might carry sixty seats.

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—General Robert Rennie will oppose Mayor Church in North Toronto at the Federal election. He was nominated as a Liberal-Liberal candidate on Saturday night.

QUEBEC, Nov. 21.—R. A. Drapeau, advocate, has entered the field in Quebec East against Ernest Lapointe, the Liberal leader in this district. Mr. Drapeau is running as a Protectionist.

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—Thomas Foster, ex-controller and former federal member for East York, announces definitely that he will contest the East Toronto riding as an independent candidate.

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—Thomas Marshall, Labor candidate in Wright County, has resigned his nomination.

LIMITS TELEPHONE INCREASE TO CITIES

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—In a judgment handed down today the railway commission holds that the ten per cent increase in exchange rates recently granted to the British Columbia Telephone Co., applies only to Vancouver, Victoria, New Westminster, Nanaimo and North Vancouver.

The company has filed a tariff applying the ten per cent increase to all exchanges in the Province. The new tariff is to be effective December 1.

ASSERTS FRANCE FACES DANGERS

Premier Briand Tells Conference Why His Country Requires Strong Defensive Force—Germany's Threats

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Germany, while apparently disarmed, Premier Briand told the armistice conference today, could with her present machinery raise an army of six million or seven million men.

At least 250,000 Germans were receiving daily military instructions, he added.

Although a part of Germany evidently wants peace and is ready to get back to peaceful pursuits, the French Premier declared, another portion headed by Ludendorff and others of the military caste is continuing to preach the old Prussian doctrine.

In a dramatic speech of an hour, the French Premier outlined to the conference "what is being held at the door of France," which, he added, he wants peace. "How can anyone ask France to disarm under such conditions?" he asked.

When Premier Briand had finished addressing the conference, Arthur James Balfour, head of the British delegation, declared that the British of Great Britain, but did not reply in detail.

War Parties May Control

Reverting to the possibility that the war parties of the Centre Empire might come back to power, M. Briand recalled there recently was an attempted restoration in Europe which might have set the whole continent on fire. "Fortunately for the Entente," he added, "it was averted."

Referring to the physical aspects, M. Briand said it was well understood that some persons took the viewpoint that as Germany was still emerging from the war, she was in no position to be dangerous. "Our soldiers had a place in the fight," said M. Briand, "and they know to what point the German soldier can carry his heroism. Germany still has 2,000,000 men who have made war. You ask, is it possible to mobilize an army there tomorrow? I answer, yes."

"What is the German army?" he asked. "Is it in conformity with the peace treaty? No, certainly not. According to secret instructions issued by some of the German military authorities, these men are not only prepared for service, but for war if needed. The German Government itself has done its duty and is ready to recognize it. The German Chancellor is loyal and has supplied very real evidence that he realized the state of peace and honors the signature of Germany, but the German Government is weak. The present German Government might fall at any moment."

There was still another German organization, he said, comprising 150,000 former soldiers who were non-commissioned officers, ready to undergo military service.

Russia's Capabilities

Russia, said M. Briand, could not be considered a negligible quantity, for she retained the power to mobilize 20,000,000 men. He asked what would become of France if the Bolsheviks should join the Germans. "What Germany's intentions were toward Russia," said M. Briand, no one could tell. He emphasized the present unrest in Germany and efforts to build up Bolshevik sentiment there. On the naval question, M. Briand said, France was among friends, but when it came to land armament she was surrounded by dangers.

Protesting that he never would do anything to draw France into war, M. Briand added an admonition to his hearers to remember that should France, through an excess of optimism, be attacked and perhaps lost, he would be nothing more than "an abominable traitor."

War Materials Handy

The question of materials was then discussed by Premier Briand, who said it was a problem that could easily be solved.

"You have seen," he said, "how quickly enormous armies have come to us and fought by the millions. What is Germany but a vast country of industry? Everything is ready in Germany, the plans, the design, the capital, everything to go on manufacturing guns, rifles and artillery. Great captains of industry have bought concessions in Scandinavia and other parts of Europe. It is easy enough to fabricate guns when you have the materials. It would be difficult to lay down a capital ship without the steel knowing it, but the guns, the rifles, they can be manufactured and cannot be controlled with any measure of certainty."

Cannot Forget

The French Premier pointed out that Prussia had been disarmed by Napoleon, and added: "But she found her place on the battlefield. Could we forget that? They often say that French people are frivolous, that when danger is past we turn our minds away. But we do not forget the dire lessons of this last war. Too many homes are in mourning. Too

VICTORIA MAN WAS FAST LOSING OUT

Anderson Says He Was So Weak He Was Ready to Give Up

"Tanaka built me up about a year ago and I have been in the pink of condition ever since," said W. Anderson, 1127 Davis Street, Victoria, B.C. "I had been losing ground for about a year on account of stomach trouble, and to make matters worse, I had a severe attack of the flu. When I began taking Tanaka I was so weak and worn out I had little strength or energy and was about ready to give up."

"After taking a few bottles of Tanaka I was like a new man, had the best sort of appetite and could eat anything I wanted without any bad effects. I had been in tip-top shape ever since, too."

Tanaka is sold in Victoria by Ovi Drugg Co., and by leading druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

EGYPT REJECTS BRITISH PLANS

Failure of Negotiations at London Is Credited to Disagreement Over Diplomatic Representation

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Although British official circles decline to comment upon the termination of negotiations with the Egyptian delegation until Adly Teshen Pasha, head of the delegation, reports to the Sultan, it was learned authoritatively today that the delegation departed for Cairo last Saturday convinced of its failure and anticipating the return of unrest and disorders in Egypt when the results of the London negotiations are announced.

The reason for the failure of the negotiations, which were originally designed to accord self-government to Egypt, is ascribed by some critics to unwillingness of the Foreign Office to carry out the recommendations made last February by Lord Milner, former Colonial Secretary, who urged in a report to Parliament "that the promise of self-government cannot be postponed."

The London press generally attributes the breakdown in the negotiations to the question of British military representation, but the Egyptian viewpoint is stated as being favorable to British supervision of the Suez Canal zone and that an agreement would be possible regarding British military authority in other parts of the country.

The question which produced the deadlock in the negotiations is understood to have been that of diplomatic representation abroad and of Egyptian desire to have similar representatives appointed to that country from foreign countries. The Egyptian delegation considered that the British offer meant less than Egyptian independence on a basis of self-government.

URGES DRASTIC PROHIBITION LAW

Dominion Alliance Orders Party Leaders to Pronounce for Nation-Wide "Bone Dry" Legislation

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—The Dominion Alliance has addressed an open letter to the Premier, to the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, and Hon. T. A. Crerar, regarding Dominion-wide prohibition, and urging "that you, as leaders in our Dominion Parliament, shall do what that Parliament has the exclusive and undoubted power to do, and to do it promptly, and to say now that you will do it."

"Complete nation-wide prohibition of the manufacture, importation, exportation and interprovincial transportation of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes is a vitally national issue that so far has not received attention proportionate to its importance in the present election campaign. This need of discussion now, however, will not lessen the insistence with which the people of Canada will press the matter on the next Parliament."

"Last parliaments have debated and resolved, but have done little. Over and over again the House of Commons has by voting in favor of resolutions, adopted the following or a similar resolution:

"That this House is of the opinion that the right and most effective legislative remedy for these evils is to be found in the enactment and enforcement of a law prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes."

"If these parliaments were right in so affirming—and they were—our parliament cannot go wrong in implementing these declarations by legislation."

The present situation is intolerable and the legislature upon our statute pitifully inadequate."

VICTORIA RESIDENTS COME ON MINNEDOSA

QUEBEC, Nov. 20.—The steamer Minnedosa, which arrived at Quebec from Liverpool on Saturday night, had among its passengers, Captain Tibbe, master of the Newfoundland schooner Nordica, and five members of the crew who were shipwrecked on the coast of Corsica and who are on their way back to Newfoundland. The crew was rescued by natives of the island.

Among the passengers were Lieut. Colonel Lord Colville and Lady Colville, en route to their home in Victoria, B.C.

Whether the question of army strength will be discussed by the conference, the idea of establishing a basis of limitation, is problematical. The French delegates have been determined that it shall be introduced, but the objective is believed to be, to place France's position before the world rather than to seek any agreement as to military strength when the question of land armaments is raised.

EGYPT REJECTS BRITISH PLANS

Failure of Negotiations at London Is Credited to Disagreement Over Diplomatic Representation

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Although British official circles decline to comment upon the termination of negotiations with the Egyptian delegation until Adly Teshen Pasha, head of the delegation, reports to the Sultan, it was learned authoritatively today that the delegation departed for Cairo last Saturday convinced of its failure and anticipating the return of unrest and disorders in Egypt when the results of the London negotiations are announced.

The reason for the failure of the negotiations, which were originally designed to accord self-government to Egypt, is ascribed by some critics to unwillingness of the Foreign Office to carry out the recommendations made last February by Lord Milner, former Colonial Secretary, who urged in a report to Parliament "that the promise of self-government cannot be postponed."

The London press generally attributes the breakdown in the negotiations to the question of British military representation, but the Egyptian viewpoint is stated as being favorable to British supervision of the Suez Canal zone and that an agreement would be possible regarding British military authority in other parts of the country.

The question which produced the deadlock in the negotiations is understood to have been that of diplomatic representation abroad and of Egyptian desire to have similar representatives appointed to that country from foreign countries. The Egyptian delegation considered that the British offer meant less than Egyptian independence on a basis of self-government.

URGES DRASTIC PROHIBITION LAW

Dominion Alliance Orders Party Leaders to Pronounce for Nation-Wide "Bone Dry" Legislation

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—The Dominion Alliance has addressed an open letter to the Premier, to the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, and Hon. T. A. Crerar, regarding Dominion-wide prohibition, and urging "that you, as leaders in our Dominion Parliament, shall do what that Parliament has the exclusive and undoubted power to do, and to do it promptly, and to say now that you will do it."

"Complete nation-wide prohibition of the manufacture, importation, exportation and interprovincial transportation of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes is a vitally national issue that so far has not received attention proportionate to its importance in the present election campaign. This need of discussion now, however, will not lessen the insistence with which the people of Canada will press the matter on the next Parliament."

"Last parliaments have debated and resolved, but have done little. Over and over again the House of Commons has by voting in favor of resolutions, adopted the following or a similar resolution:

"That this House is of the opinion that the right and most effective legislative remedy for these evils is to be found in the enactment and enforcement of a law prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes."

"If these parliaments were right in so affirming—and they were—our parliament cannot go wrong in implementing these declarations by legislation."

The present situation is intolerable and the legislature upon our statute pitifully inadequate."

VICTORIA RESIDENTS COME ON MINNEDOSA

QUEBEC, Nov. 20.—The steamer Minnedosa, which arrived at Quebec from Liverpool on Saturday night, had among its passengers, Captain Tibbe, master of the Newfoundland schooner Nordica, and five members of the crew who were shipwrecked on the coast of Corsica and who are on their way back to Newfoundland. The crew was rescued by natives of the island.

Among the passengers were Lieut. Colonel Lord Colville and Lady Colville, en route to their home in Victoria, B.C.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN MANITOBA CASE

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Privy Council today reserved judgment on the appeal of the Province of Manitoba in the case against Norman Kelly & Sons, the contractors who constructed the Parliament Buildings at Winnipeg. The appeal was heard last week.

The Manitoba Government petitioned the Privy Council to sustain the award of $1,307,351, with interest at 5% per cent since July 1, 1914, given by a Manitoba court against Kelly & Sons for alleged faulty construction of the buildings. The Manitoba Court of Appeals cut the lower court's award down to $165,215, thus reducing the total almost $1,000,000.

Hon. Thomas Johnson, Attorney-General for Manitoba, represented the Province, and A. J. Andrews, K. C., Winnipeg, was counsel for Kelly.

PRINCE IS GIVEN GOOD WELCOME

Received With All Honors on Indian Tour—Ghandi Expresses Deep Sorrow for Violence of Bombay Mobs

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Prince of Wales in continuing his way through India, reached Poona, in Bombay Province today, and received a great ovation, according to official cable received by the India Office here.

BOMBAY, Nov. 21.—In a statement issued Saturday, Mahatma Ghandi, leader of the non-Co-operationists, deprecating the disturbances which occurred on the occasion of the arrival in India of the Prince of Wales, declared that it was impossible to describe the agony he had suffered during the "past two days, whose events stink in my nostrils."

Ghandi finally blamed himself for having instigated the spirit of revolt, and announced that he would refuse to eat or drink anything but water until peace is restored.

Disturbances occurred Friday at several points in the native quarter of the city. A mob burned a police station, and military patrols were called into action. They fired upon and dispersed the rioters, who suffered some casualties. On Saturday morning the trouble started afresh in a number of places, the police being again forced to fire into the crowd.

Both disturbances were confined to the native section, affairs in the European business quarter going on as usual.

CHURCH AFFAIRS TO BE DISCUSSED

Important Questions to Come Before National Assembly Meeting Next Week—Effect of Welsh Disestablishment

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Matters of grave importance arise at next week's meetings of the national assembly of the Church of England which, under the new powers recently granted by Parliament, largely controls the internal administration of the established church.

The report on prayer book revision will be presented. This matter is delicate because it not only affects every shade of historic church opinion but involves the, as yet, vaguely defined relationship between the national assembly and the ancient convocations of York and Canterbury, especially as regards doctrinal matters.

The central board of finance recommends, by a narrow majority, the closing of the ordination candidates' training school recently opened with a view to more especially assisting ex-service men in Holy Orders. The school has provoked perhaps more controversy than anything as yet undertaken under the church's new powers. It is alleged on the one hand that the church has no right to assist men into orders when insufficient pay awaits them, and, on the other hand, it is asserted that the church is short of 3,000 clergy already, while the advocates of clerical celibacy, who are not insignificant in numbers, profess that the question of maintenance will not arise if we have an unmarried priesthood.

An interesting event in the now disestablished Church of Wales, was the election yesterday of Dr. Charles Green as first bishop of the new diocese of Monmouth. The Welsh Church has faced the upheaval caused by disestablishment pluckily. Their appeal for funds to replace lost revenue, considering the present hard times, has met with an encouraging response. Many churchmen who were originally bitter against disestablishment admit that the new order of things has brought about a more charitable feeling into Welsh religious relations.

The new bishop is a Welshman. There were times when not a single Welsh diocese was represented by a man belonging to Wales.

AUTHORS' WEEK

The idea of setting aside a week to put before the public the claims of Canadian authors has the dual merit of indicating an awakening of literary consciousness and the inculcation of a desire to advertise home products in competition with the products of authorship which come from the American side. Many of the outstanding authors of this country, unable to find a sufficient market at home for their literary efforts, have been compelled to publish in the United States and write stories primarily for American consumption. Many magazines and periodicals in this Dominion are not on a very firm financial footing, because they are in direct competition with American magazines which have secured and hold a wide circulation in Canada. It will be difficult, if not impossible, to build up a literature of our own unless the inducements are held out to our authors to write for Canadians, to live among their own people, and to find the market here which will enable them to subsist through their authorship. The public generally do not appreciate their own authors to the extent that they ought.

There are signs that a better appreciation is being built up of the efforts of home writers, but there is a good deal that remains to be done. The sale of the works of Canadian authors is increasing and the number of authors is growing. There is an illimitable field for works of fiction and truth in every-day Canadian life. There is a settling for romance which it would be difficult to excel. It is true there is, as yet, a small population in the country, and the danger exists, for the time being, of the development of too many authors. That is a danger, for authorship is a profession to which there is no royal road, and those who embrace it must prove their title to the confidence of the public at every turn. The object of Authors' Week is not to attempt to prove that the public are lacking in judgment in not having given greater encouragement to the literary efforts of Canadians, but to endeavor to bring before them the fact that without sufficient appreciation—and this may be lacking often through ignorance of Canadian works—local authors have to go elsewhere to find a reading public, and in doing so have, very often, to prostitute their gifts.

A tendency of a young country is to disparage the efforts of its own citizens, and this is particularly true where authorship is concerned. If Authors' Week does nothing more than to give the people an inquiring mind where Canadian literary efforts are in question it will have accomplished a good deal. The formation of an Authors' Association throughout the country is a recognition that there should be a connecting link between the public and those who write for the public education or recreation. The association mentioned is a constant reminder that there is a band of Canadian writers who are endeavoring to interpret the spirit of the country. The Authors' Week which they have arranged is one effort to direct attention to home literature, and to awaken towards this a glow of sympathetic public approval.

MRS. RALPH SMITH.

Among a very large section of the people there will be regret to learn that Mrs. Ralph Smith has resigned from the Provincial Cabinet. Her reason for this course of action is candid. A minister without portfolio holds a position of responsibility without any executive power, and has to acknowledge and condone acts of the Government without being free to criticize them in the Legislature. It is an invidious position for any spirited individual who may be unwilling to bow to the majority opinion in an executive council, and in every probability, the supporters of the member for Vancouver, will applaud the course she has taken. The extent to which she represents public opinion is a warning to the Government that her defection must be taken as a protest against certain courses being followed. Mrs. Ralph Smith was included in the Cabinet because of the immense majority she secured at the last Provincial election, and in recognition of her ability to voice the desire of the female portion of the population. Her elevation to Cabinet rank had a tendency to reduce instead of increasing her power of service, and her realization of this led to her resignation.

It may be taken for granted that the Government will not fill the vacancy in the Cabinet. There is no need in a Provincial Legislature for a minister without portfolio, and we have often thought that in British Columbia the number of portfolios is too great for the population concerned. Any member of the Legislature who is fitted to be included in a Cabinet should be recognized as fitted also for executive duties and entitled to the remuneration adequate to these. Inferentially, Mrs. Ralph Smith has taken the position that the member of a Cabinet should have a greater responsibility to the Legislature than to the Executive Council, and in this standpoint she will be sustained by public opinion. Her action, too, is a reminder to our Legislature that there are matters affecting the common welfare regarding which it would do well to take a more active interest and a greater measure of responsibility.

A LABOR MANIFESTO

The manifesto issued by the British Labor Party deals with the subject of a reduction of armaments now before the Washington Conference, and draws attention to one of the larger considerations in that connection. It says: "No nation will permanently accept conditions which penalize it racially, politically or economically." The view of British Labor in this sense logically means that Japan should be given racial equality with the other nations, and implies that danger from that country will always exist so long as her nationals are discriminated against. It was hardly expected that Labor would take this attitude, but it is a sign of growing ability to think internationally. One of the handicaps attending any declaration to reduce armaments is the fact that Oriental nations are discriminated against. In the American proposals there are greater limitations set on Japan than on either of the other two great naval powers. Japan is ready to bow to these, with certain reservations, but in doing so she is penalized prospectively in a racial, political and economic sense, and the British Labor Party is of opinion that no nation will accept such conditions permanently.

British Labor is in favor of reduced armaments on sea and land. It admits at the same time that the nations will not disarm unless "they know there is a regular method of machinery in existence for the equitable settlement of international disputes; and unless they have, irrespective of military strength or weakness, a guarantee against aggression." This is tantamount to an endorsement of the international arbitration court which the League of Nations was brought into existence to set up, but which is only functioning to a very limited degree because the United States and other powerful nations have not subscribed to the Covenant of the League. There is no arbitration court proposed as an outcome of the Washington Conference, so that if the British Labor manifesto is right in its contention reduced armaments will not mean peace. The anomaly, however, of the Labor manifesto is found in setting the opinion we have quoted against its expressed desire that the American proposals for naval reductions should be made effective. There is at one and the same time endorsement for these proposals, and an expression of opinion in general principle affecting disarmament that they are unlikely to prove effective as a guarantee of peace.

COLD WEATHER FINDS PEOPLE UNPREPARED

Every Coal Dealer in City Is Flooded With Extraordinary Fuel Orders by Customers in Need

The sudden cold weather has stirred up the minds of the people of Victoria by way of remembrance. Purchases of coal, which had been slack up to the present stormy spell, have suddenly taken on extraordinary activity, according to the coal dealers of the city, and there is scarcely an office that is not flooded with orders that it is difficult to fill. The situation is not that there is not sufficient coal to meet all immediate requirements, but so many people have put off buying their winter's supply till the last moment, owing to the long spell of mild weather, that the sudden demand will tax the available supplies to the limit. If the present cold weather continues long, one of the worst difficulties now is the question of deliveries. The work of delivering is necessarily much slower during snowy weather than when it is clear, and the trucks can only make a part of the trips they would be able to make under finer weather conditions. Every dealer in town has his delivery trucks working early and late filling the orders that are coming over the phone and across the desks this week. Some of them were working to fill orders on Sunday.

With regard to any possible drop in prices for coal, for which many people have been waiting, there seems to be no present likelihood of it. The present abnormal demand will tend to keep prices stationary.

REV. DR. WM. SPARLING IS SUDDENLY CALLED

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 21.—Rev. Dr. William Sparling, an outstanding minister of the Methodist Church in Canada and pastor of First Church here for the past two months, died at his home here early this morning. At the evening service on Sunday the doctor was found suddenly ill, and never rallied. Some years ago he was pastor of Grace Church, Winnipeg. A few days ago the doctor caught a cold which made it particularly hard for him to speak. He told his friends, however, that he was all right. Dr. Sparling was born 58 years ago on a farm in Renfrew County, near Pembroke. Licensured as a minister, he was survived by a widow and two daughters.

WHERE MOST PEOPLE TRADE

START CAMPAIGN TO GET ODD JOBS DONE

Chamber of Commerce to Canvass City—Expect Move Will Result in Eliminating Unemployment Here

Now is the time to have those odd jobs done around the house, in the office and at the shop.

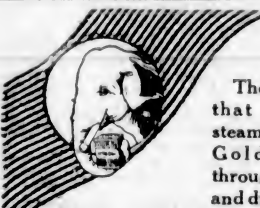

That is the suggestion to be made by the Chamber of Commerce to the people of Victoria in a campaign to reduce unemployment in Victoria during the winter months. If the people respond and have those jobs done by hiring a man from the Labor Bureau without delay, there will be no need for relief work, charity doles, and no idle men walking the streets, officials of the Chamber believe.

Secretary A. Gordon Scott outlined to the directors at their luncheon in the Dominion Hotel a plan to enlist the co-operation of citizens in an effort to eliminate unemployment. Letters will be sent out by the Chamber, possibly by Roy Rouse, if they are willing to undertake the task of distribution, asking householders who have work to be done to get in touch with the Government Employment Bureau.

Mayor Porter stated yesterday that unemployment did not appear to be very serious in Victoria so far, but that the city would have to count upon public co-operation if there were any acute developments. "We have used up all our relief appropriations and loans, and the city is not likely to borrow any more for that purpose," said the Mayor.

Mail Orders for Sydney
SYDNEY, N.S., Nov. 21.—Additional mail orders aggregating 21,000 tons have been promised to the Sydney mills of the British Empire Steel Corporation by Government railway authorities, according to Mayor Fitzgerald, who has returned from Ottawa, where with a civic committee, he interviewed the Minister of Railways, President Hanna and Sir Joseph Maclellan.

COMPARE WAGES AND LIVING COST

Conciliation Board in B.C. Electric Case Asks for Chart Covering Years Since 1913—Mr. Cottrell's Objection

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—The wage conciliation board which is arbitrating between the B. C. Electric Company and its employees in hearing final argument today on a number of disputed clauses. On the main fight, that over the request of the company for a fifteen per cent wage reduction to cope with the reduced cost of living, the company is to have the right to submit further data and the men to have a right to meet them.

"Wages are always higher in the West than the East, so comparisons of eastern wage schedules should not govern the board," argues Business Agent Cottrell, who figured that there has been no substantial reduction of living costs and that the present rate of pay bears the same relation to living costs as did the 1913 pay to its 1913 cost.

"At the highest rate of pay we were able to buy the fewest goods. We were never so well off as in the pre-war period," he said in meeting the board. "The company is to be given the right of living costs to support his contention."

Mr. Saville, for the company, claimed that the disparity between East and West living prices no longer exists and should not be reflected in wage awards.

At the request of Chairman W. C. Dittmar, a chart is to be prepared showing the relation of living costs to wages in each year from 1913 to the present time.

Mr. Murrin—Such a chart will show a case for a 16 per cent reduction on weekly earnings or of 26 1/2 per cent on an hourly basis.

Mr. Cottrell—We cannot agree to the compiling of the costs from The Labor Gazette without seeing and checking the details. On the mere adding we get $21 to the company's $20.

QUEBEC, Nov. 20.—In connection with complaints said to have been made by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Hon. Dr. Beaudet and other leading Liberals of this Province, that the Government's lack of friendship for Quebec is proved by its failure to name French-Canadians as representatives of Canada at the Peace Conference of 1919, the Quebec Chronicle publishes what it styles a bit of hitherto unwritten history.

The Quebec paper asserts that it has reliable authority for the statement that Hon. Dr. Beaudet himself was asked if he was willing to act as one of the Canadian representatives with Sir Robert Borden at the Peace Conference.

According to this information, the Chronicle claims that Dr. Beaudet first appeared to be gratified at the invitation, but explained that before reaching a decision he would have to consult his chief.

After having seen Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the member for Beauce declined to act, and it was for this reason that there was no French-Canadian at the Peace Conference, the Chronicle contends.

The Chronicle's informant states he is in a position to establish the accuracy of this fact if necessary.

Visit of French Delegates
OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—Final arrangements have not yet been made for the visit to Canada of the French delegates who are now in the United States. The Canadian Government is now in communication with the French Embassy at Washington regarding the proposed visit.

ANNIVERSARY TEA AT SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE

Ladies' Guild for Sailors Gives Birthday Party, Serving Refreshments and Providing Fine Programme

An excellent tea and fine programme recently given by the Ladies' Guild for Sailors' birthday party yesterday afternoon at the Connaught Seamen's Institute. Although the affair was not primarily arranged with a view to making money, the organizers had the satisfaction of raising the sum of $47.76, which will be devoted to the good work of keeping up the institute and looking after and sending little comforts to the light-house keepers and down the coast. Four new members joined during the afternoon.

The principal feature of the programme was a little address by Mrs. Nerouson, who told the history of the institute as the result of the visit here in 1908 of Rev. T. M. Mathews, a representative of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society. This meeting took place at the house of Mrs. Raymer, and Mrs. J. W. Troup was unanimously elected president. This society had gone on working ever since. The institute, as it is known to present-day Victoria, was opened on November 21, 1912, Miss Eleanor Dunsmuir furnishing the sitting-room. During the war the institute served a particularly useful place, and the Ladies' Guild has had no time to grow slack in service even in the after-war days when the needs of the light-keepers along the British Columbia coast are so constant and the relief work among sailors and their families so continuous.

Other items on the programme were arranged by Mrs. Rayer, being as follows: Piano solo, Miss Nora Rayer, a gifted young artist, who is a newcomer to the city, and who was given a very cordial reception; vocal solo, Mrs. Clifford Wren, who was welcomed; Mr. James Hunter, also very welcome; and recitation, Miss Irene Gibson, who is a clever young elocutionist.

Mrs. Alice Thomson, president of the Guild, received the visitors as they arrived, and before they went down to the concert hall the guests were served welcome refreshments by a committee under the convener-ship of Mrs. Oscar Ross, assisted by Mesdames Willers, Moore and Muir. The tea was the gift of Mr. Gilliam, Penberth Buildings.

ESCAPED PRISONERS GOT TO MAINLAND

Are Thought to Be Sane for Time Being—Planned Get-away With Extraordinary Skill

Excepting that it is now practically certain that they got clear away, developments in the work of rounding up the escaped prisoners from the Wilkinson Road Asylum for the Criminally Insane, on Nov. 17, John Lynn, alias Sylvester Flynn, and Saylor A. Malone, show no change from what the police previously announced. But the efforts for their recapture are being continued both on the island and mainland, as well as across the border in the State of Washington. Everywhere the police authorities are on the lookout for the men, whose records show them to be exceedingly dangerous characters to be at large. The police are now convinced that both men have been feigning insanity, and that they had planned their break from custody with extraordinary cunning and forethought. The fact that they had been in collusion in the escape is a clear indication, it is claimed, that they are not insane. The authorities declare that lunatics never practice getaway.

Made Clear Getaway
It is now certain that the men made a clear getaway from the island at once and have reached the mainland. The police are maintaining a vigilant search for them, but the main work of capturing them has shifted to the mainland.

The report that they had been in a house in Heale last week has been traced down and it was found that there was no foundation for it. Should the man Sylvester Flynn be caught at any time he can only be returned to the asylum, as he is serving a life term and has been adjudged insane, but Malone is awaiting trial on a charge of highway robbery and is only under observation at the institution and can be dealt with for breaking from custody and for any other crimes he may commit.

VICTORIA CLOSED TO LUMBER SHIPS

Island Sawmill Interests Fight to Have Discrimination Against This Port Removed—Memorialize Minister

Although Vancouver Island has been producing forty to fifty per cent of British Columbia's export lumber, Victoria is being discriminated against by the principal transportation companies engaged in trans-Pacific trade. Ships operated by these companies will not call at this port to load, unless full cargoes are offered.

That at any rate, is the complaint of Vancouver Island lumber operators, who have memorialized Hon. H. H. Stevens, Federal Minister of Trade and Commerce, urging him to use his influence in having the present unsatisfactory condition straightened out.

The following memorial was presented to Mr. Stevens by Mr. J. O. Cameron, president of the British Columbia Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers' Association, and head of the Cameron Lumber Company, and Genoa Bay Lumber Company, and Mr. J. J. Palmer, manager of the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company, "Remains: "This memorandum is presented to you by the Vancouver Island branch of the B. C. Lumber Manufacturers, in behalf of all lumber manufacturing plants on Vancouver Island, and your co-operation is sought in our efforts to correct a most serious and grievous burden imposed on the lumber manufacturers here. The matter complained about is briefly:

Unjust Discrimination
"All lumber operating steamships to and from British Columbia ports in the foreign trade have recently announced a determination to refuse to take on shipments of lumber at the port of Victoria. Indeed, you memorialists believe that such shipments will only be received for loading at the port of Vancouver. The companies which have agreed to establish and maintain the foregoing rule are Canadian Pacific Railway Company, Canadian-Australian Royal Mail Line, Laidlaw & Company, (Hine Pussell Line), Osaka Shosen Kaisha, Haifour, Guthrie & Company, Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Canadian Government Mercantile Marine.

"The Vancouver Island mills have for many years past and up to this present time produced from forty to fifty per cent of all the lumber exported overseas from this Province.

"If the transportation companies enforce the rule recently announced, it will result in preventing Island mills from participating in less than full cargo shipments.

"The cost of barging or otherwise transferring lumber from Vancouver Island to the port of Vancouver for loading will be so great as to make it impossible for them to compete with other mills not so burdened, and as a result the quantity of lumber which will be exported from this Province will be greatly reduced.

"It has been intimated that the excuse for refusing to load lumber at the port of Victoria is complaints against the longshoremen who do the loading and storing of the cargo. If such is the fact, your memorialists are prepared to meet that objection by undertaking to guarantee as good dispatch in loading as the ships are given at Vancouver and at no greater cost per thousand.

"You are, therefore, urged to lend your influence to prevent the establishment of the fixed policy of receiving lumber shipments only at Vancouver, and particularly to keep Victoria open as a shipping port for lumber."

ALD. AITKEN THINKS "SOMETHING IS DOING"
When it was announced at yesterday's luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce directors that Alderman A. E. Todd had secured for them a copy of a speech recently delivered in Calgary by City Commissioner C. J. Yornath, of Edmonton, on the city man-

ALUMNAE DANCE PLANS

St. Joseph's Hospital Graduates Are Making Elaborate Arrangements for Affair on December 2

The Alumnae Association of St. Joseph's Hospital, under the able leadership of the president, Mrs. J. P. Sylvester and the conveners of the different committees are making every effort to the end that the dance of December 2, shall be as great a success as their preceding ones. At the last annual meeting of the Alumnae Association it was decided to "adopt" the operating end of the Alma Mater as the object of their endeavors. In pursuance of this idea they recently purchased a "safety gas-oxygen apparatus" which has proved a real boon to the hospital. The proceeds of the coming dance will be used to defray the cost of this valuable piece of equipment. In connection with the dance it is announced that tickets may be obtained from the nurses or at the hospital. Heaton's orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music, and the conveners of the various committees are as follows: Reception, Mrs. Osborne; decorating, Miss Lewis; refreshment, Mrs. Fowler; tickets, Miss B. Midgton; advertising, Miss W. O. Edgar.

EVENING WITH MARK TWAIN

Major Bullock-Webster Will Give Readings in St. Columba Church

Probably no other local entertainer has been accorded by his audiences such enthusiastic acclaim as that given to Major Bullock-Webster, whose versatility was only recently discovered through the activities of the Literary Society of Victoria, under whose auspices Major Bullock-Webster has given a series of readings, interpretations and lectures at a few of the prominent homes of this city. His personal charm, his deep knowledge of English literature, his keen analysis of created characters and his versatility of impersonation, have combined to make his entertainments an outstanding event in Victoria society.

SELF-DENIAL WEEK AT CHRIST CHURCH

Effort Is Being Made This Week to Take Care of Deficit in the Cathedral Revenues.

A somewhat unusual resolution to the effect that Anglicans living in the parish of Christ Church Cathedral should observe this week as "Cathedral Self-Denial Week" was made at a meeting of men held recently in the Cathedral schoolroom. In the course of a frank discussion on the question of support for church work, a statement presented by Churchwarden Frank Durrell showed that the responsibilities of church work undertaken by the Cathedral parish for the year 1921 amounted to over $21,000, while the assured source of income amounted to less than $18,000. The sum of $3,000, it was explained, was required for taxes on the two blocks of property occupied on Burdett Avenue, while $2,000 was the contribution asked from Cathedral parishioners towards the work of the Anglican Church in smaller parishes and in the country districts of Vancouver Island and surrounding islands, distributed through the Diocesan Mission Fund.

In the opinion of several speakers, there were many members of the Church of England living in the parish, who had benefited from the church's work in the past and were making use of the church's ministrations, but were not at present sharing in its support. As the need for money to meet the taxes is urgent, it was unanimously decided to organize an Every Member Oath throughout the parish during the week, November 21-26, when church members will be given the opportunity of participating in the support of the church, its work and needs.

PRESBYTERIANS WIN FROM DUNCAN SENIORS

Victoria Basketball Team
Shows Superior Team Work
—Up-Island Intermediates
Defeat Visiting Five

DUNCAN, Nov. 19.—A big crowd turned out on Friday evening when the Duncan senior and intermediate basketballers had their first try-out with visiting teams. The senior boys had to accept a defeat by a score of 22 to 16, playing against the First Presbyterian boys of Victoria, and the local intermediates took an honors for the home club when, in a fast, clean game they defeated the Intermediates of the First Presbyterian Church by a score of 29 to 15.

Mr. Bruce Fowler gave good satisfaction handling the whistle for both matches.

The intermediates took the floor first, and from the first the local boys took the lead and maintained it throughout the match, although at half-time they only had a one-point lead, the score standing Duncan 11, Victoria 10. Howard Phillips, on the local intermediate team, put up a wonderful game, scoring 14 out of the 29 points registered, and doing great field and team work. For the Victoria boys the scoring was divided between McGregor, Brackenridge and McLean. The teams were evenly matched in the matter of weight, and both contingents put up a fine exhibition of good clean basketball, playing with good combination and maintaining speed throughout the match.

In the senior game the visitors were too much for the local boys, their experience and fine combination and passing completely outclassing the game put up by the local aggregation. The local boys have been playing league matches, and have been picked from the different teams and have not had an opportunity of playing together as a senior team, and last night's game, although they individually did not appear to be playing up to their usual standard, they showed themselves at a great disadvantage in their lack of combination work.

In the Victoria aggregation they met a team that played with effective combination only gained with long training and experience. Little, for the Victoria team, was high scorer, registering 15 of their 22 points scored, and Bob Whyte, the old veteran player, answered eight points. For the local boys Bruce McNeil, who played in the second half only, and Joe French were the high scorers with five points each. Albert Dione registered four points and Albert Evans two points.

The teams came up as follows:
Duncan Seniors—Forwards, Don French and Johnny Dione (first half), Bruce McNeil (second half); centre, Albert Dione; guards, Vernon Tarleton and Albert Evans.
First Presbyterians—Forwards, Bob Whyte and A. McKinnon; centre, Little; guards, Bill Hudson and N. Forbes.
Duncan Intermediates—Forwards, Howard Phillips and Claude Bell; centre, Pat Forrest; guards, Douglas Tall and F. Evans.
First Presbyterians Intermediates—Forwards, McGregor and Gossie; centre, Brackenridge; guards, Streeter and McLean.

AMATEURS PREPARING FOR OPENING NIGHT

Hockey Clubs Hold Strenuous
Workouts at Arena—Show
Considerable Improvement
Over Last Year

The four teams in the race for the Victoria Senior Amateur Hockey
Championship have strenuous work-outs at the arena last evening, preparing for the opening battles Monday, December 5.

The four teams worked hard last evening, and though early in the season, showed considerable improvement over last year. The players are getting into excellent condition and the opening night should be in tip-top form to stand the fast pace. There were several "dark horses" from the East" out with the different teams, but up to the present they cannot stand up beside the local boys.

Under the guiding hands of Capt. Ed. Dudley and Coach George Ford, the G. W. V. A. sextette had a strenuous practice. Ross Miller, who two years ago played with the Two Jacks' Dope, showed all kinds of speed and promise to be the Vets' strong man. Russell Oatman will be close on his heels and then promises to be some rivalry between the two before the season is over. Both are excellent skaters and stick-handlers. Ed. MacDonald, Roy Copas and Alf. Jacklin turned out last evening, and all played a good game. Captain Dudley states that he is in urgent need of a new defence man. By next week he will have his team lined up and hopes to have them in the pink of condition for the opening night.

The Senators did not turn out in very large numbers. Dieldal took charge of the practice and put the players through their paces. Art Campbell and "Nap" Rivard, two new comers, played an excellent game and promise to make a showing before long. Leo Dowd was also on the job, and when he reduces his waistline by a few inches, nothing but a brick wall will be able to stop him. Little Hughie Burnett was also present and played a hard game. "Bing" Market and Ode Fraser were playing with the Senators, though not signed up as yet.

Elks Are Speedy

After a few more workouts, the Elks claim that they will be ready for the fray. They showed plenty of speed at their workout last night and are determined to be caught napping at the start through lack of confidence. Stewart looked like a million dollars as he tore up and down the ice, and the rest of the team was in good form. Temple and Eric George played an excellent combination together, and it looks as if they will be a dangerous pair this season. Co. Dion, turned out last evening, and when he gets into shape he promises to be a whirlwind. Harry Stuart, the Elks' new goaltender, looks as if he is going to play a better game than last season. Harry is recognized as the Pacific Northwest's star amateur goaltender, and if he plays a better game than last season he will certainly make a name for himself.

The Garrison turned out and went through their paces in fine style. They have some excellent players, and it looks as if they will make a better showing this season than last. They have lined up the following players for this season: Pittsmeadows, Good-eve, Codville, Allen, Englehorn, Wenger and Simmonds. They have some new men in their number who are claimed to be regular cyclones.

Altogether the four teams are in excellent shape considering the time of the season, and by the opening night will be in the best of condition to stand the fray.

Last evening Ed. Loughlin, Harry Marking, Gordon Meeking, Bob Genge and Tommy Dunderride spent an hour or so with the amateurs getting into condition for the opening of the season. When the opening night showed up well, and it looks as if they will make a big showing this year.

SEATTLE, Nov. 21.—With six Seattle men aboard, the fishing schooner Swiftsure has been missing since October 12, when she was sighted by the fishing schooner Florence battling with a heavy east-northeast gale off Yakutat, Alaska, according to advices received in Seattle this morning by officers of the Fishing Vessel Owners' Association.

STOWAWAY TRAFFIC ALL OUTBOUND NOW

MONTREAL, Nov. 21.—The tide of stowaway traffic between Great Britain and Canada has now turned eastward, and freighters leaving Montreal for United Kingdom ports are nowdays carrying an even heavier quota than when arriving here from Great Britain. Two cattle boats, the Orithia and Cornishman, recently found six stowaways on board, of whom four were landed at Dorset, but two were discovered later and will face deportation and perhaps jail in Great Britain. Over a dozen boats have recently left this port with unexpected additions to their crews, and these men evidently are not afraid to cross the Atlantic without wraps, since many are minus an overcoat.

By reaching quarantine at noon the Japanese liner should be berthed here by 1:30 p.m. or shortly afterwards.

Another Japanese vessel due to reach port today is the O. S. K. steamship Arizona Maru. The Arizona was due at quarantine during the night and should come alongside early this morning.

WHISTLELESS VESSEL LOST AMID SHIPPING

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Nov. 21.—A "Whistleless" vessel, which had been left ashore for repairs, lost for twelve hours in a blinding snowstorm in Thunder Bay, constantly in danger of being rammed by other ships proceeding to port "under signals," the freighter Dayton, formerly the Francis Vidlar, nosed her way into port Sunday night.

The Dayton left the Port Arthur Shipbuilding Company's plant for Fort William, a distance of eight miles, and became lost. Two tugs were sent to find her, but had to return on account of the density of the storm.

Miller, "Ladies Must Live," was shown with great success at the Dominion Theatre last evening.

"Ladies Must Live," is a picture story with a vital theme, and in its development many highly dramatic scenes are presented which fascinate the spectator.

The houses of wealth, from boudoir to kitchen, with varied human types, are shown with that careful attention to detail which placed George Loane Tucker's name as producer on an enduring pedestal of fame.

The story is deeply appealing in its presentation. An augmented cast of capable players worked to excellent advantage. Betty Compson, now a Paramount star, had the leading role, and she played opposite Robert Ellis, the leading man. The production is a fine one, and the cast is of high grade.

ROYAL A rare example of artistic motion picture photography, coupled with an unusually powerful and gripping story may be seen at the Royal Victoria Theatre this week when the Goldwyn picture, "Snowblind," by Katherine Newlin Burt, is now being shown.

This picture was directed by Reginald Barker, and contains one of the strongest love stories that have yet found their way to the screen.

There is nothing of the frail maiden or the lounge lizard in "Snowblind." With such a splendid outdoor scene as Russell Simpson in the leading role, one may be sure that the story revolves about elemental passions blown to their hottest flame, the love, hate and fear of a group of four people who live together in the heart of the Canadian Rockies.

Beautiful Pauline Starks was never more lovely than in her present role of a girl blinded by the snow, who is taken to the home of a fugitive from the law, and falls in love with him as he boasts to her of his great deeds.

Gradually, as her sight returns, she realizes his wickedness and seeks the protection of the fugitive's brother. It would be unfair to tell how this triangle works out, for part of its enjoyment lies in the surprise that nature herself has stored up for the three persons involved.

"Snowblind" is an exceptional picture of strong action, splendid acting and excellent production. As an extra attraction Mrs. Douglas McConnan, the well-known Victoria singer, will render the following songs at the evening performances: "I Love You So," from "Chin Chu Chow," and "The Winds From the South." A very funny comedy and scenic make up the balance of a good programme.

COLUMBIA Included in the cast that supports the beautiful Hope Hampton in her first screen production as a star, "A Modern Salome," which is the feature attraction at the Columbia Theatre today and tomorrow, are Wyndham and Percy Standing, seasoned actors of the stage and screen who have been popular favorites for a considerable time.

Wyndham Standing was born and educated in England, and appeared there in company with Sir Henry Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Kendal and Miss Fortescue. He came to this country and had a successful stage career, when he turned to the screen and appeared as leading man for Edna Ferison, Pauline Frederick and Petrova. He has also been featured in such productions as "The Bugle Call," "The Law of the Land," "Rise of the World," "My Lady's Garter" and "Paid in Full."

Recently Wyndham Standing has appeared with Norma Talmadge in "The Isle of Conquest," and with Lucy Cotton in "The Miracle of Eve." He is a brother of Percy Standing, who is also in the cast, and has a brilliant career on the stage and recently on the screen in many notable productions.

"A Modern Salome" was written and directed by Leonce Perret and is distributed by Metro Pictures Corporation.

VARIETY Many persons have referred to the land of freedom by Europeans, but comparatively few have ever seen this great institution. In the new Mary Pickford film play, "Through the Back Door," which is showing at the Variety Theatre today and all week, an excellent view of the island is shown. The scene depicts immigrants actually entering this country. The pictures were made in New York harbor recently by M. Schneider, an expert cameraman, under the supervision of Mark Larkin, director of publicity for Mary Pickford, at a time when the congestion of immigrants was greatest at Ellis Island. It is said that a near riot was occasioned when it became known to the foreigners that pictures were being taken for a Pickford play. They believed little Mary was there in person. The management of the Variety Theatre is giving away $15 this week as first prize to the one who draws the best picture of Mary Pickford; second prize a free pass to the Variety Theatre for six months; third prize, a free pass for three months; only amateurs being permitted to take part in this contest. All drawings must be in by Thursday. The pictures will be displayed in the lobby of the Theatre Friday and Saturday, and also the following week.

JASCHA HEIFETZ IS COMPARED TO FAMOUS
VIOLINIST PAGANINI

In their search for someone to compare with the magic Heifetz, who comes to the Royal Victoria on November 28, music reviewers in more than one city seemed to turn instinctively to Paganini. Of course, no one knows Paganini played, but his name among violinists has always been like that of Napoleon's among generals. He did things that no other violinist ever did, or so at least the stories always go. All have weird tales of his uncanny genius; some that taken on the form of legends, like his communion with Satan when performing certain pieces. Many queer things are written about him, but one of them is surely true; that is his marvelous playing. There can be no doubt of this, for his compositions reveal what an astounding technique he must have had. Today his "Violin Caprices" and other difficult numbers are considered the most taxing things to perform.

But to link Heifetz's name with Paganini's is not entirely a compliment to the young Russian artist, it is claimed. The twentieth century genius is far more richly endowed musically than Paganini ever was. It is probably true that Paganini's technical gifts were no greater than what Heifetz shows; nothing can be better than perfection, and no living violinist had approached the Russian's perfect playing. But Paganini leaned away from the classics, he gloried in show displays of "fireworks"; his object was, apparently, to astonish the world, and dazzle it he did, for his name surely will die. With Heifetz, quite the reverse is seen; no more sound and sincere musician is to be found than this modest player. He can astound—and frequently does—but he has never yet played with the object of amazing his audience.

The following criticism refers to the Heifetz concert at Portland last week and appeared in The Oregonian:

In one of the royal gardens of Europe only the rarest and most beautiful flowers are permitted to grow. One morning the king noticed that prominent space had been given to a rather unattractive plant with inconspicuous, brownish buds. Annoyed, he called the head gardener. "Ah, your majesty," said the gardener, "that is the rarest flower in all your garden! True, the buds seldom open, but on the inside this is the most beautiful of all flowers, with the most delicate coloring and veining. And its perfume is so rare that the insects and the birds are intoxicated by its sweetness."

As Heifetz played Wednesday evening, so cold, so apart, and yet bringing such exquisite melody from his precious fiddle, the story of the old garden came back. Here was another brown bud, enclosing rarest beauty. There are only superlatives for the playing of Jascha Heifetz. Technically it is close to perfection; but in the two years since he was last heard here he has added to this an emotion and depth of feeling which were lacking before. In spite of his cold stage presence his playing warms the heart and thrills the emotions. His coloring, his phrasing, his bowing—who thinks of these in his glowing tone pictures which he creates? His art is supreme.

The Beethoven Sonata in G Major for violin and piano, which opened the programme, was played with fine feeling and interpretation. Samuel Chotzinoff, pianist-accompanist, receiving his just share of the applause. Mr. Chotzinoff throughout the programme proved himself a pianist of parts. His accompaniments were works of art, following every mood of the artist with fine sympathy and feeling.

Heifetz's interpretation of the Bruch Concerto in G Minor also struck an answering chord in his audience, the brilliant allegro finding fine contrast with the solemn adagio.

In his group of smaller numbers he interpreted the moods of Wagner, Brahms, Dvorak and Kreisler with delightful variety. The Wagner Prize Song, the gay Hungarian and Rhapsodic, and the richly Oriental "Mam-bourin Chinois," giving a chance for vivid contrasts. In his final Sarasate number, "Introduction and Tarentelle," all of the "fireworks" of his faultless technique came into play, leaving the audience clamoring for more.

Two encore numbers were "Prophet Bird" (Schumann) and "Le Chasse" (Grieg-Kreisler).

"Standing room only" signs were out for the concert, and to accommodate the hundreds who were unable to obtain seats, the artist will be brought back for a return engagement on November 28. The concerts are under the direction of Steers & Coman.

STUDENTS' RECITAL

Miss Marian Hemming's Virgil Clavier Method Pupils to Appear on Programme December 9

Miss Marian Hemming's seventh annual student recital will be held on Friday evening, December 9, at the Empress Hotel ballroom. As usual, Miss Hemming has arranged a very attractive programme of numbers by students of the Virgil Clavier method with additional numbers by herself, and a pupil of Mrs. Bennett Brook will assist on the programme with vocal numbers. The gross receipts of the evening will be given to Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.O.F., milk fund.

Mr. Oliver Eckhardt takes the character part of "Honey," and although he does not appear until well into the second act, his is one of the best pieces of acting which has been seen here for some time. This is Mr. Eckhardt's first appearance in Victoria, coming, as he has, straight from Chicago, and the ovations which he received last night can leave him in no doubt as to his popularity at the Princess Theatre.

Thomas Sullivan is seen in the role of Henry Tracey, a part which suits his style admirably, while Mr. Shirley McDonnell plays the reporter of a big newspaper with genuine grace, and Mr. Arthur Elton, in the role of John W. Cannell, is very creditable. Mr. Leonard Jaxon, as Stephen Weatherby, and W. Campbell, as Sandy McPherson, are also very good.

Little Miss Lily Dooley was another welcome return to the Princess, and is playing the part of Grace Wentworth with her usual grace, while Miss Eunice Richards, as Emily Parker, and Miss Wanda Deane, as Mrs. John W. Cannell, are both exceptionally fine.

Altogether, "The Misleading Lady" is one of the best productions which has been seen at the Princess for some time, and the Eckhardt Players scored a great success on their opening night.

CONFESSION'S MERIT SHOWN BY PARABLE

Rev. Carl B. Weatherell Occupies Pulpit of First Unitarian Church, and Shows Sin of "Shifting the Blame"

Rev. Carl B. Weatherell occupied the pulpit at the First Unitarian Church on Sunday morning and spoke to a big congregation. The story of the Prodigal Son, he said, carried a vital lesson for today. In spite of dissipation, the Prodigal had one sterling good point—his willingness to confess. "I have sinned," he produced no alibi—ignorance of worldly affairs, wild companions, his father's overindulgence toward him; he simply made himself worthy by his very confession. Today people are so busy shifting responsibility that real progress is handicapped and each community is in danger of becoming impersonal. We naturally come by this habit of blaming others—Adam blamed Eve, Eve blamed the serpent. The vacillating Pilate shifted the blame to calm the angry mob. In government the man at the top of the ladder often drops the whole load on his subordinate. So it is in education. In church work, in all phases of everyday life.

How much more noble it is to stand up as did the Prodigal Son—I have sinned, I have neglected my duty, I have erred. A man who can bear the fruits of victory modestly and sincerely is always to be welcomed; but the man who has erred and who will manifestly stand before the world and confess—"I have sinned"—and then, in a humble contrite spirit will build for the good of his brother man, he is greater.

More of self-deprecation, less of self-praise; more of "what can I give," less of "what can I get"; more of "I am to blame," less of "the other fellow is at fault," will bring about a better understanding between men and nations.

SOLDIER MEMBER WANTS LEGAL FACTS

Col. Lister, Veteran of Great War, Puts in Plea for Better Treatment of Returned Men by Government

Col. Lister (Kaslo), continuing on the Budget Speech, on Saturday, remarked that it had been said that some opposition criticism was not constructive, and he hoped it would be understood that in anything he said it would be from the point of view of the interests of British Columbia. He congratulated the Minister of Finance on his budget, which he was not prepared to criticize, leaving that for the leader of the Opposition, who was more capable of doing so.

Some people queried whether all the expenditures were going to prove to be assets. He hoped this would be the case. The Government, he was quite prepared to admit, had to have money to carry on certain developments for the Province and as long as the Province could afford to pay the interest on the borrowings he "had no kick."

Concerning the proposed increase in motor taxes he thought that the people who used light cars were paying sufficient, but those who had expensive, heavy cars should, he believed, pay one hundred per cent more. "Put it on him," said the colonel, "and not on the poor farmer in the country who had to have a car in order to earn his living." The farmer had a hard job to get along as it was, whereas the professional man had little personal property and earned a much better living than the farmer ever would.

Soldiers Settlement

There was some excellent land at Merrville, and as a whole that feature of the settlement was a whole lot better than he had been led to expect, but the problem of clearing was too serious. Whether it would pay to move the men to some other section he was not prepared to say. The Minister of Agriculture appeared to have an idea that the soldier settlers had not acted in good faith but he (Colonel Lister) objected to this, saying he had lived among them and at the Camp Lister area everyone of them had his invested from $200 to $2,000 of their own money on the land, and as yet they did not have a scratch of the pen to show they possessed any interest therein. Was not that an evidence of good faith, he asked.

Recalling that he had been somewhat "misreported" in that the only objection the men had was that they were being charged seven per cent instead of the five per cent they were led to believe they would pay for loans, Colonel Lister said there were other clauses in the agreement they were asked to sign in which they objected, but these points had been improved. He wondered if Mr. Ward, of Cranbrook, former official on the Land Settlement Board, would say the men had not been given to understand that their loans would cost them five per cent? South Okanagan area lands are being sold on a six per cent basis and the Minister of Finance had been telling the House of the low rates at which he could borrow. The men naturally desired to know why the Government was charging them more. Colonel Lister suggested the Government might split the difference and make the rate six per cent.

It was perhaps true, as the Minister of Agriculture had stated, that the men had been given to understand that when they were suddenly laid off without notice they found themselves in the predicament of having nothing and of having incurred debts.

A Difference

Premier Oliver asked if it was not understood that the Government would carry the men to the point where they could obtain loans from the Federal Soldier Settlement Board. Colonel Lister admitted the Premier was correct and the men understood that, but the appraisers sent out by that board had refused to appraise the lands at sufficiently large amounts to let the Provincial Government out, the position, as admitted by the Provincial department before the land was cleared were of a value of only thirty to fifty per cent of actual cost. Premier Oliver: Politics came into the matter because it was a question between the Province and the Dominion. I personally made a trip to Ottawa and had the distinct promise from Mr. Black, of the Settlement Board, that the lands would be appraised at cost. If there has been any breach of faith it has been on the part of the Federal Government.

Men Who Have Suffered

"That is not the point, what about the men who have been made the football. They are in the soup. The point is to get them out," retorted Colonel Lister told the House he did not want to leave the impression that the settlement would be a losing proposition in the long run but that conditions at the present time demanded instant attention. He cited instances where women had suffered from lack of food, especially in one case where a settler had been forced to sell his entire furniture in order to ship his wife back to her home in England.

Hon. Mr. Barrow: Is that the wife of a man who bought a piano? Colonel Lister: No, neither she nor her husband bought a piano, but her father did. And to get back to England this woman was forced to sell the wedding present.

The member for Kaslo went on to state that this state of affairs should be remedied, and that instead of the Minister of Lands travelling to England in search of settlers the Government should look after those already here. "We have been sunk in the desert, but for some reason or other little water was obtained and, following the establishment of sawmills by the Government, the men could only work part time on account of the water shortage. The settlers, reading the account of the Government's plan to assist the Merrville area in the way of providing road work during the winter months had suggested that similar action be carried out at Creston.

In conclusion, Col. Lister stated that he did not care a rap whether such aid was given by the Federal or the Provincial Government, he intended to continue the fight to have justice done to the men, women and children of the district he represented.

Prettier Teeth Next Week

If you will now start this delightful test

This is to offer you a way to whiter teeth, cleaner, safer teeth. Such glistening teeth as millions now enjoy.

Any dealer named below will give you the means. Get it and watch the effects. See your teeth grow prettier—note how clean they feel.

Dentists everywhere advise this method. Millions of homes have adopted it. Try it this week, for your own sake. Learn what it means to you.

To remove the film

Your teeth are coated with a dingy film. It is viscous—you can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. It clouds the teeth and causes most tooth troubles.

The ordinary tooth paste does not effectively combat it; so the tooth brush has left much of it intact. As a result, teeth lose their luster. And, despite all brushing, tooth troubles have been constantly increasing.

The film is what discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar, it holds the substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Many other serious troubles are also traced to them.

Science combats it

Dental science has long sought ways to combat that film. The ways have now been found. Able authorities have amply proved them. Leading dentists everywhere advise their daily use.

The methods are embodied in a new-day tooth paste—Pepsodent. It combats the film wherever it may linger. In this way it brings surprising results which one quickly sees. Over 5,000 new people daily are trying out this modern method.

Fights acids too

Pepsodent brings three other effects which authorities now desire.

It multiplies the salivary flow—Nature's great tooth-protecting agent. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise form acid.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's neutraliser for the acids which cause decay. Pepsin is also included.

CANADIAN AUTHORS SUBJECT OF TALK

Mr. John Hosie, of Provincial Library, Addresses Gyros—Mr. Lester Patrick Recites From Drummond's Works

A programme befitting the fact that this is Canadian Authors' Week was given at the Gyro Club luncheon in the Criterion Cabaret yesterday. A suitable address was delivered by Mr. John Hosie, of the Provincial Library.

NIGHT COUGHS

Terribly wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep. The constant coughing keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition that they get no chance to heal.

You will find in

NORWAY PINE SYRUP

A remedy without an equal, for soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the breathing organs and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. John McKenney, Lower Montague, P. E. I., writes: "About three years ago I caught a very bad cold accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness, and was so hoarse you could hardly hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying, hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised; got a bottle, and at once it gave me relief, and after using four my cough had all gone. Now I always keep 'Dr. Wood's' in the house, and shall recommend your wonderful remedy to others."

Price, 35c and 60c, a bottle at all dealers. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Adv.)

while Mr. Lester Patrick, president of the Rotary Club, recited from the works of Dr. W. H. Drummond, the well-known Canadian writer.

Canadian literature is not in a healthy state as far as popularity is concerned, said Mr. Hosie. If one looked around the bookstores one found great quantities of American literature, most of which was of a poor quality. Much excellent Canadian literature had been produced, and the purpose of the Canadian Authors' Week was to bring about a more widespread reading of these works. It was the duty of Canadians to be patriotic in this matter. Numbers of the finest of the Canadian writers had been forced to go to other countries in order to secure recognition of their ability. While there was not a single monument in the history of Canadian literature, Mr. Hosie knew of one erected in the memory of Burns, and another to the memory of a Chinese writer of fairy tales.

The speaker asked the Gyros to give their support to the movement to increase the popularity of Canadian writers. He pointed out that lists of Canadian works were obtainable from the City and Provincial Libraries.

Mr. Patrick is well-known for his able recitations of Drummond's poems written in the habitation of a poet. He made a big hit with the Gyros, who gave him a prolonged ovation on the completion of his contribution to the programme.

The Gyro orchestra contributed several musical items to the luncheon programme. Gyro Hubert Leithaby, chairman of the entertainment committee, announced that a strictly Gyro dance would be given in the Criterion Cabaret on Friday, December 2. Only Gyros and their lady friends are to take part in this affair. Gyro George Pauline has charge of the dance.

An entertainment for the children of the Orphan's Home will be given by the Gyro Club on Thursday, December 22. It will be staged at the orphanage, where the Gyros and their lady friends will endeavor to give the young folks a good time.

COMMUNITY CONCERT PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Large Crowd at Drill Hall on Saturday Night—Band Concert, Basketball Game and Dancing Enjoyed

One thousand and fifty people patronized the splendid community programme which was presented by the Fifth Regiment, C.O.A., at the New Drill Hall on Saturday night. The affair opened with a half-hour band concert by the Fifth Regiment Band, under Bandmaster Albert Rumsby, the musical selections being warmly applauded by the large audience.

The Crusaders' and St. Andrew's basketball teams put up a fast and exciting game, the former club walking off with the laurels, the final score standing 44-25 in its favor. The winners lead their opponents at all stages, although the St. Andrew's five worked hard and were reluctant to acknowledge defeat. The crowd took a great interest in the game, cheering the respective teams lustily. The teams were as follows: Crusaders, Scotty Dowds, Arthur Hole, Jimmy Buckett, Reg. Greaves and Sid Hole; St. Andrews, Bill Erickson, Earl Squire, F. Cobley, Jack Barclay and Dick Bellby. Bob Whyte refereed. The dancing, which began immediately after the basketball game had concluded, was directed by Mr. Frank Hatcher, assisted by Mr. R. R. Bowden. The new dancing floor, which has been constructed for the police ball, was thrown open to the dancers, and not a few couples took part in the favorite pastime. Mr. Frank Hatcher made an appeal for continued public support in the community concert proposals, and asked that everyone would assist in keeping the dancing of a high order. Refreshments were served by the Fifth Regiment during the evening, while Mrs. R. R. Webb sold chocolates. Cloakrooms were provided for ladies and gentlemen. At next Saturday's entertainment there will be no basketball game, the committee in charge having decided that dancing will be the order, following the promenade band concert. An even larger turnout of citizens of Victoria, Saanichton and Esquimalt is expected this week-end.

Your dealer will give you a 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent if you present the coupon at any store named below.

Do this for your own sake—for your family's sake. Watch how your teeth improve. The delightful effects will very soon convince you what is best.

Every application of Pepsodent brings five distinct results. And modern authorities consider all of them essential.

Now a world method

In many countries Pepsodent is fast displacing old tooth cleaning methods. Dental authorities the world over endorse it. Careful people must adopt it sooner or later, for old methods are not right. With them, tooth troubles and discolored teeth have become almost universal. A change must come, and now is the time to start it.

Quick changes come

The user of Pepsodent quickly feels conspicuous changes. One cannot doubt the benefits it brings.

Perhaps men who smoke see the most conspicuous effects. Their films are tobacco-stained.

Women see them in prettier teeth, for most film-coats are dingy.

But Pepsodent is most important to the children. Their teeth seem most subject to these film and starch attacks. Dentists advise that children use Pepsodent from the time the first tooth appears.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. Watch the other good effects, and read the reasons in the book we send.

This ten-day test will be a revelation. It may bring to your home a new era in teeth cleaning. And the benefits to you and yours may be life-long in extent. Cut out the coupon now. Present it today so you can start at once.

The Block Signals Are Working—

In some respects, human experience is like railroad.

Every moment of the business and social day the block signals are giving right of way to keenness and alertness—while the slow and the heavy must wait on the sidetrack for their chance to move forward.

The ability to "go through" and to "get there" depends much on the poise of body, brain and nerves that comes with correct diet and proper nourishment.

That's why so many choose Grape-Nuts for breakfast and lunch. Served with cream or milk it is completely nourishing, partly pre-digested, and it supplies the vital mineral salts so necessary to full nutrition.

Grape-Nuts has a rich, delightful flavor, is ready to serve on the instant—and is distinctly the food for mental and physical alertness and speed. At all grocers.

Scotland and the Union Jack

Sir.—In The Colonist of Sunday, in an article under the heading of "Our Union Jack," there is a phrase, "Later, when Scotland became part of England." Would the writer be as kind as to give the date of the event, as this is the first I have heard of?

The Police Commissioners

Sir.—I do not know by what right a certain Dr. Miller, at a recent meeting—I think it was of the Chamber of Commerce—referred to the Police Commissioners as being responsible for making Victoria the "laughing stock" of the province. As one of those who voted for Dr. Hall, I eternally resent Dr. Miller's rather supercilious remarks.

I have known Dr. Hall for nearly twenty years, and during the whole of that time I have never known him to be guilty of an action in his private or public life that would cause a friend to be ashamed of him. On the contrary, with many others of his friends, I have tried to him many kindly and generous words, which, if known generally, would raise him to a high position in the estimation of his fellow-citizens.

I have at times been compelled to disagree with Dr. Hall's policy in regard to municipal and Dominion affairs. Our objectives were the same, we differed in the way to attain it; but no one in his right sense could question the doctor's absolute sincerity or question for a moment the splendid altruism of the spirit that governed him.

Mr. Editor, I do not know Dr. Miller, and I have no desire whatsoever to hurt his feelings, but I can assure him that he has a very considerable task before him if he ever hopes to reach the place Dr. Hall holds in the unbounded confidence, esteem and affection of an overwhelming number of the residents of this city and province.

Government and Municipalities

Sir.—Premier Oliver proposes to hard hit when accused of extravagance and tries to justify his Government by throwing dirty water at the city of Victoria. He claims that the report of the Inspector of Municipalities would be so painful to the ratepayers of Victoria that he refrains from publishing the same. We thank him for his kind consideration, but let him out with it, and at the same time ask him not to forget the interesting little tale he could tell (if he wished) of his own Government. How many more are there getting their fat pay cheques quaking in their shoes over the Dr. Baker inquiry? What kind of deals have been handed out over the liquor deal, etc., and again, what is the reason of the resignation of the Hon. Mrs. Smith? Was this woman elected to assume responsibility for actions of the Government that was impossible for an honorable and upright woman to assume? Why did she not receive the portfolio that was promised her, or was she not to be trusted, or was she too straight for the company she was in? Let us hear a little more light on what is going on and a clean-up where it is wanted.

Motor Licence Fees

Sir.—In reference to the increased tax of fifty per cent on cars for the year 1922.

I should like to ask through your paper if it would not seem fair for those that have been incapacitated through injuries received in the war and have invested what little gratuity they received to the means of getting around in comfort, should be exempt from further taxation? I myself was wounded in the leg and find it difficult to walk any distance, but am more fortunate than a lot of my comrades that lost their legs.

I think that soldiers disabled through the war should receive more consideration.

J. W. RICHMOND.

Presbyterian Church Association

Sir.—It is usually the postscript is usually the most important part of a lady's letter. The same is closed as follows: "We declare our profound conviction that a federation of all evangelical churches of the Christian Church is demanded by the interests of true religion and the Kingdom of God, and we pledge ourselves and our influence to the promotion of such federation."

The proposed union is the first step toward the federation; why not take it?

The moderator of the General Assembly struck the keynote when he said: "The world will not listen until the churches are more united."

615 Esquimalt Road, Victoria, B.C., Nov. 18, 1921.

Mental Criminals

Sir.—In connection with the escape of the two alleged lunatics from the Wilkinson Road Jail, it is interesting to note that the mental criminals—those who are in custody—have been sent here from the Mainland, and from Vancouver in particular.

Needless to say, this class of inmates is not a desirable one, and I write to suggest that such representations be made by the public and other bodies of the Island that will lead the proper authorities to discontinue the practice of sending them here. One recalls the vehement objections of the Australian colonies to the results of the transportation system of the last century.

Vancouver has in connection with the localities of Government institutions, always displayed a spirit which may fairly be described as greedy and grabbing, and has not without considerable encouragement in the manner in which one or another of the best of these institutions are being established or bettered, at that centre. It is but fair that they should take the best with the best, and I suggest that a strong effort be made to have the Wilkinson Road institution transferred to Van-cover, where there seems to be a greater need for it than here.

Falling this being practical, may I seriously suggest that, to give us a modicum of fair play, a panel of Victoria doctors be summoned to adjudicate upon the mental condition of such criminals as the Mainland cities may henceforth wish to shuffle off on to our hands.

A Call to the Veterans of the Empire

Sir.—The message from His Excellency Baron Byng, Governor-General of Canada, on Armistice Day, demands immediate attention—"Honor the dead by helping the living."

We have had our war memorials, shrines, parades and church services throughout our Empire, "on which the sun never sets," but it has occurred to me, and no doubt, to many others, that the part taken by the women of the Empire in the war, except in a few, very few, isolated cases, has been entirely forgotten and unrewarded. When we consider the work in field hospitals, at home and abroad; their hardships, mental strain and privations, with all their activities for soldiers and sailors, munition workers, I.O.D.E., Friendly Help, V.O.N., Child Welfare, V.A.D., and the thousand and one things they have done and are now doing for humanity, surely the day has arrived when the men and United Veterans of the Empire shall give some tangible proof of their admiration, respect and gratitude, and contribute to assist and erect in each city and village in the Empire a Woman's Memorial Hospital.

This could be easily done by public subscription, and let every man give of his very best. The details of this gift could be organized and run by the I.O.D.E. and women's societies interested. It has always appeared to me that it is nothing less than a positive scandal that there are no free hospitals for women or free child clinics in Canada. The hospitals are excellently equipped and second to none, and well run by the staff, often in money difficulties, but terribly expensive to a poor patient.

A Woman's Memorial Hospital as a united gift from the men and veterans of the Empire would be a fitting tribute to those to whom we owe so much, both the "living and the dead." The idea would take on and instantly spread throughout the world, Great Britain, our sisters in the United States, Australia, New Zealand, India and Dominions overseas. Other nations would quickly follow suit. France, Japan, Italy, Belgium, all would send grateful tribute to the devotion and increasing labors of the women of their respective nations.

Let Canada get busy, as in the case of the Boy Scout movement and the Y.M.C.A., which has done, and is doing, such an infinite amount of good. Once this "Woman's Memorial Hospital" gets fairly under way, nothing can possibly stop it, for as long as the English-speaking race remains on this earth, we shall have, in some measure, paid our tribute, and the debt will rest in peace "in Flanders fields" and the Dardanelles.

Prairie Farmers

Sir.—Allow me a short explanation of a letter of mine you published a short time ago. Prairie farmers are practically unanimous for the return of a central selling agency, or Government control. They found that it gives to all the same fair price at any time they sell, eliminates middlemen, and the farmer does not try to postpone his obligations in hope of a rising market. The voluntary agency proposed by Mr. McElgin is thought unsatisfactory. It would bring the grain exchange and dealers into conflict with the Government, and other reasons too lengthy to enter into here.

It has been a maxim that "competition is the life of trade," but, carried to its extreme limit, it is the death of trade and must give place to co-operation, not only local and national, but international. Our Minister of Agriculture might propose a conference with those of the countries I mentioned in my letter, each country to adopt its own central selling system or Government control (Australia has it this year), with a common understanding of what is a fair, profitable price to its own farmers, and agree to adopt that as a minimum, and allow it to sell to the best advantage, and tariff against those who will not come in.

There could be no monopoly or hold-up of consumers in this. The farmer, with his risk of crop failure from elements, insects, pests, etc., would not be likely to wax too prosperous, but would be reconciled to a small tariff tax if he knew that he had not to give his crops at less than cost.

To hit the happy medium between too great prosperity and too little is a puzzle. Too prosperous, the average farmer is prone to sell out and move to the city and become a petty landlord, leaving a bond-slave on his farm who has bought largely on credit, and, with a couple of bad years, both old and new owner are in difficulties; or there is a short-term tenant, also a bond-slave, with no interest in keeping up fertility, and from whom the petty landlord exacts everything possible and does nothing. National ownership of the land, a lifelong lease at a mere nominal rent, the right to game his successor, compensation for improvements, nominal rent to be used for old-age pensions in proportion to length of time farmed, liberal, but limited, amount of land leased to each individual (with other details), may perhaps come some time, or something like it. I am told that all such schemes are impractical. They are too big. Is it not rather that men are yet too small?

MAKES ATTACK ON GOVERNMENT

Mr. W. J. Bowser, K.C., Leader of Conservative Opposition, Assails Financial Dealings of Provincial Administration

A scathing attack upon the present Liberal administration of the Province was delivered in the Legislature yesterday afternoon, when Mr. W. J. Bowser, Conservative leader, with all his old-time fire and aggressiveness, assailed the Government on its financial policies when speaking on the budget speech.

Mr. Bowser pointed to the borrowings of the present regime, contrasting them, as actualities, with the oft-repeated injunction of the members of the Government and, more especially, of the Minister of Finance, to "save and produce." He went at length into the record of the Government in its repeated and continuous borrowings, and held that whatever may have been the record of the late administration in the matter of expenditures, its record

"This great financial effort tells us it is economical to borrow. But he failed to tell us there must be a pay day," he said.

Hon. Mr. Hart: These borrowings are on account of the P.G.E.

Mr. Bowser quoted from the Minister's budget speech to show the Minister had borrowed more this year than in any previous year. Under the "questionable policy of the present Government," declared Mr. Bowser, the Province was just a shade under sixty-three millions, and the net debt is about fifty-five millions. The present Government had succeeded in bringing up the net debt some $35,527,000 since it came into office.

"This wonderful policy of borrowing, this frenzied finance, has increased the net debt from a little over nineteen millions to over fifty-five millions in about five years," declared the Opposition leader, who asked how long the Province could stand it. What, he asked, was there to show for this outlay except increased taxation.

"So long as we can go into New York and strengthen up the millionaires there, there is no reason to suppose the Government's policy will change," declared Mr. Bowser, who pointed to the proposal to hand over the personal property tax to the extent of one-half of one per cent to the municipalities, and the proposed increase in motor licence fees, and asserted that now the man with a small stock of goods is to be mulcted not alone the personal property tax, but also an income tax. True, the Minister of Finance told the taxpayer, "if you make no profit you will not pay the income tax," but encouragement, he asserted, to anyone to tell him that if he runs his business at a loss he will not be called upon to pay an income tax.

Die and Save Money

"We would, under this policy, have saved money had we died last year," asserted the Opposition leader. "But now we have the assurance that the Minister of Finance will be at the door when the corpse leaves, to collect his due," said the Opposition leader relative to the proposed increase in succession duties. He referred to the statement made by Hon. Mr. Hart to the Retailers' Association of Victoria on July 25 last, that personally he regarded the personal property tax as unfair. Yet today the same Minister was seen passing over that tax to the municipalities. He recalled the Minister had promised a fight with the Federal Government over the question of a dual income tax when the war was over, and yet he was found in communication with Sir Henry Drayton, Federal Minister of Finance, suggesting a conference. Then, in that interview with the retailers the Minister had gone on and stated he did not like the idea of a personal property tax, that he hoped next year he would see his way clear to get rid of it, and now in his budget speech he was promising to give it over to the municipalities. He told them "I believe we can work out plans for finding new sources of revenue without adding any additional burden on the people." Where could this added source of revenue be secured? asked the Opposition leader.

Premier Oliver: From the race track.

Has An Idea

Mr. Bowser laughed heartily and suggested that at any rate the Premier possessed an idea which, it would appear, his Minister lacked.

"I suppose that was the time the Minister decided to tax the girl in the telephone booth, the girl in the store," he said. He quoted from the press report of the meeting between the Minister of Finance and representatives of business interests on July 15. The Minister had told them he would ask authority of the Legislature for power to enforce the personal property tax, but that he would not inflict new income taxation.

"If you propose to give a reduction in the income tax, then it should be announced in the budget speech," asserted Mr. Bowser, who referred to the Minister's personal property tax as a "gem," and stated the conditions were full of indignation gentlemen denouncing his policy.

"Did you whisper to them you have borrowed seventeen millions this year?" he asked of the Minister. "You are putting one over on the municipalities, inflicting an unprofitable tax on them because you have not got the courage to collect it for yourself. You did the same with the poll tax and the amusement tax. You are passing the buck to the municipalities, and the proposed increase in the municipal property tax, as asserted the Government has been making proposals to the municipalities ever since it came into office, has been talking of investigations into the municipal situation, being engaging taxation experts whose suggestions have never been followed.

"We have seen the face of the Minister of Finance traveling through the Province on a so-called investigating tour, and there has been no report brought back. This year you had Professor Beckett try his prentice hand; we see the Premier and the Minister of Finance looking themselves in the vault to the end that they shall not be disturbed, and what is the result? You have envious eyes on the sinking money which the municipalities possess a nice chance to take over a fund most of which is carefully invested.

Premier Oliver: What about the deficit in sinking fund?

Wants the Money

Mr. Bowser admitted there are certain deficits in municipal sinking funds, but the Minister was not looking for that. He wanted the real money which the municipalities possess in such funds, and expected to get it at five per cent because he knew he could not borrow at the same favorable rate. He held that the personal property tax would not benefit the smaller municipalities, while Victoria and Vancouver would doubtless benefit by reason of the fact that in the latter cities would be found the largest stocks. In his view the only fair way was for the Province to collect such taxes and assign them to the municipalities on a per capita basis. All the municipalities would then be on the same basis and would then know what they might expect to receive.

Referring to Hon. Mr. Hart's suggestion in his budget speech that there might be appointed another Public Utilities Board, Mr. Bowser declared the Minister was like a drunken man, floundering about in a financial delirium.

"He is coming and going, but getting nowhere. If the Premier could have brought his ordinary obstinacy to bear, he should never have allowed him out of that vault," suggested the Opposition leader, who held that since 1917 his ideas of the duty of a responsible administration have changed in view of the Government's refusal to accept its responsibilities, and he instanced the liquor act as a measure among others which the Government did not have courage to put through on its own initiative.

Up in the Air

"You have left the business man up in the air. He does not know where he is at. He wants to pay his fair share of taxes. The municipalities want to reduce the exorbitant tax on land and they don't want to have to bid in lands at tax sales. These, who can afford to pay should not bear, he should never have allowed him out of that vault," suggested the Opposition leader, who held that since 1917 his ideas of the duty of a responsible administration have changed in view of the Government's refusal to accept its responsibilities, and he instanced the liquor act as a measure among others which the Government did not have courage to put through on its own initiative.

Women of Middle Age

THE critical stage of a woman's life usually comes between the years of 45 and 55, and is often beset with annoying symptoms such as nervousness irritability, melancholia, heat flashes which produce headache and dizziness, and a sense of suffocation. Guard your health carefully, for if this period be passed over safely, many years of perfect health may be enjoyed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted to help women through this crisis. It exercises a restorative influence, tones and strengthens the system, and assists nature in the long weeks and months covering this period. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and contains no harmful drugs or narcotics. Its value is proven by many such letters as these:

Regina, Sask.—"I was going through Change of Life and suffered for two years with headache, nervousness, sleepless nights and general weakness. Some days I felt tired and unfit to do my work. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and found good results, and I also find it a very helpful Spring tonic and useful for constipation from which I suffer much. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to several friends, and am willing you should publish this."—MRS. MARTHA W. LINDSAY, 810 Robinson St., Regina, Sask.

Lacelles, P.Q.—"During the Change of Life I felt so weak and run down I could hardly do my work. The perspiration would pour over my face so that I could not see what I was doing. We live on a farm, so there is lots to do, but many who felt as I did would have been in bed. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it did me a world of good. I tried other remedies but I put Vegetable Compound ahead of them all, and I tell every one I know how much good it has done me."—MRS. DUNCAN BROWN, Lacelles, Prov. Quebec.

STOCK MARKET TAKES TONE OF UNCERTAINTY

Hesitation of Speculators Attributed to Higher Money Rate and Developments at Washington Conference

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Mixed conditions prevailed in the stock market today. Lacking plausible explanations, the uneven tone was attributed to firmness of money rates and developments at the arms conference. Among active shares the only noteworthy gains were made by copper, utilities and several of the junior oils. Equities and food shares, with the usual sprinkling of miscellaneous issues, were subjected to a series of raids in the last hour. Supporting orders in United States Steel effected partial recovery.

Sales were 735,000 shares.

Advices over the week-end were at one with the market's hesitant movement. Business gains at Western centres were neutralized by further declines in railroad tonnage. Important loadings showing decreases of 10 to 20 per cent.

Demand loans opened at 5 per cent. against last week's final quotation of 4 1/2 per cent. but the latter rate was poised toward the end, mainly at the expense of belated borrowers, and offerings of time money were relatively small.

British exchange hovered around its recent maximum, but French bills were heavy, with the Belgian rate, each forfeiting about 10 points. German marks eased only a trifle.

The investment market continues strong and broad, as indicated by large subscriptions to Consolidated Gas notes, aggregating $20,000,000, and the strength of the general list. Liberty bonds closed mostly at advances, and international strengthened. Total sales, $16,875,000.
